Additional Supplemental Information

Schedule A, Part II, Line 5 - A technical correction was made to the public support percentage calculation for the prior year reported in Schedule A, Part II, Line 5. This adjustment involves the exclusion of excess contributions from certain contributors whose cumulative support exceeded 2% individual donor limitation, as outlined under Treasury Regulation 1.170A-9(f) (7) (i). While the correction results in a reduction to the prior year's public support percentage, both the original and corrected figures remain well above the 33 1/3% threshold required to qualify as a public supported organization. As such, this adjustment does not impact the organizations qualification as a public supported charity.

Research: In order to provide health interventions with the highest impact and that create long lasting behavior change towards better health, we empirically investigate chronic disease in Guatemala and the effects of our program interventions. The data serves as a guide for us to start new programs, scale up existing programs, or seek to find a new solution to an old program. The center for indigenous health research, founded by Wuqu Kawoq, is a leader in global health research. In 2024 we published 15 research papers in areas including prenatal care, diabetes, cardiovascular diseases, covid vaccines, and cervical cancer. A complete listing of our publications since our founding is located on our website. Through the end of 2025 we have over 130 peer-reviewed publications covering a range of topics including chronic malnutrition, food security, non-communicable diseases, development and gender equity in health, early child development, family planning, midwifery, and emergency obstetrics and medical anthropology.

Women's Health: We define women's health in the broadest sense possible. In addition to high-quality cervical cancer screening and prenatal care, we also offer management of sexually transmitted infections, family planning services, and treatment of all cancers that commonly affect women. We know women have diverse medical needs, so our program also includes the provision of robust primary care. We have developed specific expertise in the screening, diagnosis, referral, and treatment of cervical cancer, which is the leading cause of death in Guatemala. Our obstetrics initiatives focus on reduction of maternal mortality through high-quality prenatal care, midwife education, and the use of technology to make childbirth safer. The foundation of our women's health program is providing classes in Mayan languages that, when integrated with our nutrition initiatives, help women have and included the reconciliation between audited financials and the Form 990 on Schedule D Part XI. A prior period adjustment of $13,664 is recorded in Part XI, Line 8 to reflect an unrealized gain that was inadvertently omitted from the prior year's net asset balance. The adjustment aligns the beginning net assets with the fair market value of investments reported in the prior year. The organization reports investments at fair value and this non-cash adjustment ensures consistency between the balance sheet and the reconciliation of net assets.

Part VIII Statement of Revenue, Line 1:

Revenue from an educational and clinical collaboration agreement with a U.S.-based academic institution was reclassified from contribution revenue to program service revenue to more accurately reflect the nature of the arrangement. The funds were received in exchange for logistical and programmatic services. In accordance with IRS Form 990 instructions and ASC 958-605 this represents an exchange transaction and is properly reclassified to Part VIII, Line 2 Program Service Revenue.

Part VIII Statement of Revenue, Line 1:

In reviewing the organization's funding streams, it was determined that certain amounts previously reported as contributions in Part VIII, Line 1f-specifically, funds received under federal subawards from institutions administering grants awarded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH), more appropriately qualify as government grants (Part VIII, Line 1e) under the Internal Revenue Code and Form 990 instructions. The organization was determined to be a subrecipient, carrying out a portion of the federal award's programmatic activities and subject to federal compliance requirements. In accordance with IRS Form 990 instructions and ASC 958-605, funding of this nature is properly classified as a government grant rather than a charitable contribution.
